FORGED NAME OF DEAD MAN

H. B. Kittinger's Name Forged to Two Checks for $138

The Farmers National Bank, of Madisonville, received two large checks lately, which were written last month and with H. B. Kittinger's name signed to them, who has been dead for six months. The checks were made out on the business check of M. Kittinger when he was in the grocery business, but he had closed his account with the Farmers National Bank some time before his death.

The checks were cashed at Jackson, Miss. It was rank forgery as the hand writing in no way resembled that of M. Kittinger.

The check book he had used before his death was found and six blank checks had been taken from the middle, and the numbers on the two forged checks corresponded to two of the checks taken.

The Mississippi bank will have to stand the loss, and detectives will start to work on the case right away.

OLDEST EMPIRE IN THE WORLD NOW A REPUBLIC

Pu Yi, Baby Emperor, Gives Up Reins of Government to be Placed in Hands of the New President, Sun Yat Sen

Three Lives Lost When Ice

Bridge at Niagra Breaks

The ice bridge that blocked the river channel between the cataraact and the upper steel arch bridge below the falls for three weeks past, broke at noon Sunday, taking with it Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Stanton, of Toronto, and Barrell Heacock, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Both men refused chances to be rescued in order to save the woman. There were four others on the bridge at the time it broke, but managed to get out of the way just in time.

The bridge was considered perfectly safe, being in places from 80 to 80 feet thick, about 1,000 feet in length, and in some places a fourth of a mile wide.

MADISONVILLE HOME DESTROYED BY FLAMES

Home of Dr. F. P. Strother Burned to the Ground

Sunday night about eight o'clock the residence of Dr. F. P. Strother, caught fire and was completely destroyed. The fire is supposed to have originated in the bath room from a faulty flue. The house was so far gone when the fire was discovered to save it although the fire department did good work. Some of the furniture was saved, but the loss was heavy. Dr. Strother was away from home at the time of the fire.

W. D. Coll's house next door was slightly damaged the heat breaking half dozen windows.

This is the third house that has burned on North main within a hundred yards of each other in the last three months.
